DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/10/05 has been entered.

Claim Objections

2. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

Misnumbered claims 45-82 been renumbered 62-99. Original renumbered claims 1-61 have been canceled (see paper dated 7/17/2002). Applicant is advised that every effort is needed to cooperate with the Office to align the claim numbers with the current applicant claim numbers. Applicant's unfamiliarity with claim numbering has caused much confusion to the Office, both to the clerical staffs and the Examiner.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 62-99 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 5,185,667. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed transform parameter calculation means or step as appeared in claims 62, 74, 90, 91, and 93 has already been recited in the patented claims 1, 10, and 11 as the microprocessor means. The selected viewing angles and magnification as recited in the patented claims are the same as the pan, tilt and magnification as claimed. In addition, patented claim 7 further defines that the transformation and calculation are carried out in real time, which is the same as recited in claim 93. Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to recognize that, although wording differently, the conflict claims are not patentably distinct.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6. Claims 93-96 and 98 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Juday et al. (5,067,019).

Regarding claim 93, Juday shows a step of capturing (see col. 14, lines 57-58, and camera 4), a step of creating (5), a step of receiving (see col. 17, lines 26-32, and col. 15, lines 13-19), a step of transforming (col. 5, lines 59-65), and a display (18). The system is operated in real time manner (see col. 5, lines 21-26, and 54-56).

Regarding claim 94, see col. 5, lines 54-56.

Regarding claim 95, see col. 14, lines 57-58.

Regarding claim 96, see col. 5, lines 21-30.

Regarding claim 98, the images in Figure 11 appear to be hemispherical.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2614

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 97 and 99 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Juday et al. (5,067,019).

Regarding claim 97, Juday does not specify that the step of displaying multiple undistorted portions with different orientations simultaneously. The Examiner takes Official Notice that display multiple images on a screen is well known in the art for that it enables a viewer to see multiple images simultaneously on a same monitor. This effectively reduces the actual monitors needed to reproduce each of the images. Hence, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to modify Juday so that multiple images could be viewed from the same screen.

Regarding claim 99, Juday does not specify that the wide-angle image spherical as claimed. Although it is not shown, the hemispherical camera in Juday can be manipulated to capture different angles or orientations of images. For instance, by using the hemispherical imager of Juday, a spherical image can be generated by capturing the upper and lower hemisphere images. Hence, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to manipulate Juday so that a spherical image could be captured.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to M. Lee whose telephone number 571-272-7349. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 9 to 6.

Art Unit: 2614

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, David L. Ometz, can be reached on 571-272-7593. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
